

Terms and Conditions for Army and Navy flyover competition

Prizes: The competition winner will receive a £75 voucher for Evans Cycles in Chelmsford. The winner's school will also receive a round-shaped Scooterpod (RRP £532). All entrants will receive a discount code entitling them to a 10% in-store discount for the Evans Cycles store in Chelmsford (issued by Evans Cycles on their own terms and conditions).

How to enter: Entries must be submitted online at: <https://consultations.essex.gov.uk/essex-highways/army-and-navy-flyover-competition/>

Closing date: 5pm on Friday 20 March 2020

Winner: The winning entry will be drawn at random from those who have selected the correct answer to the following question: Can you guess the weight of the Army and Navy flyover? The question is multiple-choice, with four options for an answer. The correct answer is the weight of the Army and Navy flyover, as verified by Essex Highways.

Who can enter: Any child aged between 4 and 11 on the closing date can enter the competition, providing they are a registered pupil at a primary/infant/junior school within the Chelmsford City Council administrative area. This area can be found at: www.chelmsford.gov.uk/your-council/data-and-statistics/map-of-chelmsford/. Those with family employed by Essex County Council or its contractors (not including school-based employees) are not permitted to enter.

1. All entries must be made online at <https://consultations.essex.gov.uk/essex-highways/army-and-navy-flyover-competition/>
2. Entries not received by Essex County Council by the closing date will be disqualified
3. Incomplete entries will be disqualified
4. Any entry not from someone eligible to enter will be disqualified
5. The winner will be selected as set out above
6. There is no alternative to the prizes stated above unless the Council is unable to provide the stated prize in which case an alternative of equivalent value will be provided at the Council's discretion
7. Any prize winner is bound by any terms and conditions which are attached to a prize (e.g. if the prize is a voucher then you need to comply with the terms and conditions of that voucher or any restrictions relating to when it can be used)
8. The decision of the Council is final and no correspondence will be entered into
9. The competition may be abandoned or cancelled at any time and the Council may amend the rules at any time
10. By entering into this agreement the winners agree that their first name can be published by the Council. Any personal data you supply will be used in accordance with data protection legislation. The Council's data protection policy statement can be found at: www.essex.gov.uk/policy-statement
11. The Council is not responsible for paying any cost or loss to you which results from your entry into the competition. You acknowledge that the internet is not a secure means of communication
12. The laws of England apply to this competition
13. By entering the competition you confirm that the entry is your own work and that it is lawful for you to submit it
14. By entering the competition you grant the Council permanent permission to copy, use and publish your entry in such way as the Council sees fit
15. By entering the competition you confirm that you have parental consent to do so
16. The Evans Cycles discount code is issued on behalf of Evans Cycles on its own terms and conditions and is for non-commercial use only. The offer of a discount code may be withdrawn or modified at any time.